

The Hawaiian Room

Hula Preservation Society and Blue Crater Media present
The Hawaiian Room!

Between 1937-1966, hundreds of dancers, singers, and musicians from the Hawaiian isles became part of the incredible legacy of the pioneering Hawaiian Room, located at The Hotel Lexington, in the heart of Manhattan. Over its 30 years, the Room became an incomparable venue through which Aloha and Hawaiian culture were shared with millions.

Hear from the entertainers, dancers, and patrons who made it such a special place, and be transported to a time in history when Hula, Hawaiian Music, and Aloha enchanted the Big Apple!
